THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 80% of illness is attended with inactive bowels and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored. Epsal Oranges are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction. Epsal Oranges are eaten like candy, they act quickly and aid in producing a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, grip, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea, or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons, or old folks. Three sizes, 10c, 25c, and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Epsal Store, Kelly & Pollard, People's Drug Store, 21 San Antonio.

MISS BRADLEY CONFESSES

Hopes That Her Statement, Made Public, Will Save a Great Many Wrongly Suffering Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Miss Bula Mae Bradley, of Hines, Ala., "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time and was irregular.

I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 15 pounds in weight.

I still have headaches occasionally, but nothing like as bad as before. I intend to continue using Cardui until I am entirely well.

You may publish this statement, as other ladies might profit thereby."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is worth your while to try Cardui.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution.

terian church. Of this sum, $2000 in subscription has already been raised. The securing of the funds was referred to the finance committee, after Mrs. W. H. Broadus reported to the committee on deciding upon a location. The committee has several houses under consideration, but Mrs. Broadus strongly advocated the advisability of purchasing the property outright, instead of renting.

The meeting was held that the association might become better informed on the local conditions before undertaking the money raising campaign for funds to establish the rescue home.

Mrs. W. L. Crockett, permanent chairman in charge of the work, presided at the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. K. V. Fink, for Mrs. E. F. Elliott, the secretary.

Communications from Mrs. W. L. Hill, one of the employed workers of the Woman's Charity association, giving five cases that had come under her personal observation here in El Paso, where a rescue home was needed; from Mrs. Kate R. Monte, of the musical club of Las Cruces, suggesting that the musical club might undertake to furnish one of the rooms of the house, and one from Judge A. S. J. Elyar were read by Mrs. H. M. Patterson, corresponding secretary.

Judge Elyar urged Home.

Judge A. S. J. Elyar spoke strongly in favor of the establishment of the home.

"As Texas makes no provision for the care of its incorrigible girls," he said, "there is no place in which we can commit them when they come before us. It really is a disgrace to the state that there is no state institution of the kind to which these girls may be sent. It does not help them any to be sent to the jail. We can sentence them to jail on a vagrancy charge, but that does no good to the girl, and she cannot be kept there any length of time. The only institution open to her is the penitentiary, but in order to be sent there a theft of more than $50 is necessary or some felony must be committed. Not such a great number of cases come before my court, perhaps an average of four a year, but many come to the knowledge of the police which never reach the court."

"The question of incorrigible boys is easily handled, an average of 20 a year come before me, but they can be sent to the state reformatory."

Ross Tells of Necessity for a Home.

L. E. Ross said: "Whenever the red light district in other towns is cleaned up and closed, there is a great influx of these people into El Paso. Our town has a nation wide reputation as an open town. Everything is wide open here and it is said to be a good town for that kind of work. As long as the red light district remains open there will be a continual stream of these girls coming here in the near future. A large amount of this traffic comes outside of the enforcement of the federal statutes, the United States only at present regulate interstate traffic. The investigations in these cases afford good occasions to study the conditions here. We have one great difficulty in dealing with these cases. There are many traffickers that we cannot convict without the testimony of their victims, and many girls will not give this testimony. The girls in these houses of evil are kept subordinated by the idea that police officers are their natural enemies, and that they must never under any circumstances tell them anything."

"If these girls could be made to realize that there is a door opened to them, that they can be made again respectable members of society, no longer ostracized, that they can be helped, we would not have such difficulty in getting testimony against the traffickers," Mr. Ross gave several instances of cases at present in El Paso that were under his observation, where the rescue home would meet the need of the situation.

Mr. Ross in closing said he hoped to see the home started in the near future and on a firm basis.

Mrs. J. A. Potter spoke of the connection of the traffickers and at the union station with the rescue work.

$1,000 Mistake
W. A. Lensing, Contractor, Evansville, Ind., recently made $1,000 without investing a cent.

He figured an estimate on a large contract. Next day a Burroughs man showed him how the Burroughs Adding Machine does all kinds of figuring without errors, and in one-half the time.

Just "to see the machine do it," Mr. Lensing used the Burroughs to re-figure that estimate, and found a $1,000 mistake.

He bought a Burroughs. Honestly now—did you ever make a costly mistake in figures?

MAN FOUND DYING ON CANANEA STREET

Former Cananea Man Commits Suicide—Shriners Have a Banquet.

Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, March 12.—Jenacio Felix was found in a dying condition on the streets by the police and was taken to the hospital of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company for treatment, as he was an employee of the concern. His injuries were fatal, as he died a short time after being taken to the institution. His head was badly injured by a blow from some blunt instrument. How he was injured is not known, and the police are investigating.

The members of the Shriners gave their annual banquet at the Hotel Sonora and, although the attendance was small on account of the small membership, an excellent time was had.

The three men who were liberated from jail on last Friday, who were in the party of seven brought here from Fronteras, left Cananea for Bisbee, where they will seek work. The others of the party are still in jail. It is understood that they will be sentenced to 20 days each for killing the beef to which they pleaded guilty.

Word from Naco is to the effect that four more of the deserters from the rurales force there have come into town and surrendered.

Ed. Greene, a former Cananean, committed suicide at Nixon, Tex., on March 6, by shooting himself through the head. Greene was seriously ill with typhoid while here, and it is thought his mind was affected by the disease.

TRAIN SHED OR NO SHED THE QUESTION
Union Station Directors to Reach a Conclusion on Wednesday.

WAR TIME BAND ON A PRACTICE MARCH
Col. Steger's war time band, consisting of the headquarters squadron of the fourth cavalry, made a practice march up the river road Tuesday morning and spent the day executing military maneuvers along the upper valley road.

The squadron was in command of Maj. J. D. L. Hartman and was equipped with a complete outfit for field service, including individual rations for each man in the squadron.

Advance guards, rear guards and scouts were sent ahead and behind the troops in regular war time formation to give the troops of the headquarters squadron a sample of actual campaign conditions. The troop will return Tuesday evening.

CARLOAD OF POTATOES CLEARED THROUGH EL PASO FOR JUAREZ
A car of potatoes raised by state departments of two governments was in trouble during the Maderista revolution. Orozco commandeered the spuds and ate them while in the field with his revolutionary troops.

Another car of potatoes was sent across the river Monday for an importer on the Mexican side. The Early Rose tubers were sent through the El Paso Juarez port in bond from the great potato district near Agua Prieta. As Orozco is in the city of Chihuahua, the importer has hopes that his potatoes will be used in the peaceful cause of feeding the working men of Juarez and the Casas Grandes district.

Chihuahua. They are Paulino Martinez, Dr. P. Rueda, attorney R. Gomez Robledo, Gen. D. de la Fuente and Y. Guzman, the secretary. No, there is no Vasquezista Junta in El Paso any more, nor has there been since the fall of Juarez.

The appointment Hernandez shows bears the date of March 4.

Water Rates Increased.
As showing how hard pressed for money the present government of Juarez is, it may be cited that on Monday notices were sent to all water users in the city that water rates had been increased 100 percent and that prompt payment in advance would be expected. It is also said that a system of octroi taxes will be resorted to in order to swell the fund found necessary for the maintenance of the army now quartered in the city. If this plan is pushed all food, hay and other supplies brought into Juarez for direct consumption by the soldiers or their mounts, must pay an octroi or local import tax. The first effect of this will be to send prices soaring skyward and drive people to smuggling the common necessities of life.

When asked regarding the matter, Col. Ponce said that the question of local taxation was wholly out of his province and referred interviewers to Mayor Meatas or city clerk Cinaceros, neither of whom were at the city hall up to a late hour Tuesday afternoon.

Col. Ponce said that he knew from reading a circular that water rates and other local taxes had been increased, but he did not believe that an import duty on food stuffs brought in from the surrounding country would be resorted to, as that would have a tendency to alienate the people and cause them to rebel against those responsible for the imposition of the tax.

No More Soldiers South.
No further movements of troops to Chihuahua are contemplated, which may be an indication that there is fear of an attack on Juarez in spite of Col. Ponce's optimistic talk.

Disregard Bees.
Capt. Jose Diaz, who has been foraging for beef and horses in the Pearson country, returned to Juarez Monday night with four carloads of horses and 14 carloads of cattle commandeered from one of Gen. Terrazas's ranches. Four carloads of cattle were turned over to the commissariat at Juarez and 10 carloads of cattle and the four carloads of horses were sent south Tuesday morning to be turned over to Gen. Orozco.

"Pascualista Limited" Running.
The "Pascualista Limited" left Chihuahua over the National lines Tuesday morning on time and is expected to reach Juarez at 4 o'clock Tuesday evening. The North Western's Chihuahua-El Paso train reached Juarez at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, several hours late, due to bad track on the recently constructed portion of the line between Madera and Pecos. As soon as the roadbed settles and seasons, schedule time will be attempted.

Interested in Disputes.
The military authorities at Juarez are deeply interested in an Associated Press dispatch from Washington published in The Herald of Monday to the effect that many large shipments of arms continue to cross the Mexican border from the United States, according to reports from the war department from officers along the line, and that while it is not doubted that the arms are for the use of rebels going through the customs house at Juarez as they do, the army officials cannot believe that the arms are for the "regular channels of commerce."

Hope to Get Guns Over.
Col. Ponce pointed to the article in question while telling of his intention to bring over 2000 rifles expected to arrive in El Paso Tuesday night.

"If the circumstances are as told in Monday night's Herald," he said, "I can't understand how the commander of the military forces in El Paso can stop our importation. Our advisers from our representatives in Washington are not so bold as to say that a part of entry, we may import any merchandise of any kind properly manifested. I have no fear that the rifles will be stopped."

On Way to Mexico.
Among recent arrivals in El Paso is Otto Kuehn, commercial representative of the German government at Chihuahua. Mr. Kuehn is on his way to the City of Mexico to discuss the situation with the German ambassador, and it may be to present the claims of Ketai set against the German government.

Other German subjects who may have suffered losses through the action of revolutionists in Mexico. He will not discuss his mission, but does say that Chihuahua is orderly and that many tales of depredations by rebels in arms are without foundation.

River Stops Smuggling.
The Rio Grande suddenly rose Monday night and Tuesday at noon was running bank full, putting a stop to smuggling or attempts at smuggling at the ford above and below El Paso. If the rebels have been smuggling arms as has been freely reported, the river rising will have to pay toll till the river runs down. The present flood promises to continue for some time, judging from reports from up river points.

Coal and Coke Go Over.
Shipments of coal and coke continue southward over the National, which would indicate that there is no intention on the part of the operators of the big mines or the smelters to suspend operations. Seventy odd cars of coal which have been held on the American side of the river since the "fall of Juarez" were transferred Tuesday and will be taken south as fast as motive power can be furnished.

SIGHTSEERS ROBBED BY DRUNKEN REBEL
Forced to Give Up Cigarettes and 50 Cents American Cash.

"Gimme a cigarette. Gimme all your cigarettes. Gimme some money. Gimme all your money."

That is the warm welcome three sightseeing visitors received in Ciudad Juarez Monday afternoon from one of the soldiers of the latest "Army of Liberty." They were Louis Ariston, of San Francisco, Charles G. Habegger, of Milwaukee, and his mother, Mrs. Theodore Habegger, a woman more than 70 years of age. All are guests at Hotel Sheldon.

The sightseeing party, when they were accosted by a drunken rebel, who was a six-shooter on his hip. The man first demanded a cigarette and a receipt, then, with much abuse, the rebel asked for money, and secured a maitre d'hotel's card from the more frightened strangers. On receipt of the money, the Mexican cursed the visitors and staggered away. The party hurried to this side, unfavorably impressed with the visit to Mexico.

FEDERAL VICTORY IS CLAIMED AT TORREON
Washington, D. C., March 12.—Runners that Mexican federal troops had engaged the revolutionists in a battle near Torreon and had won a victory reached the state department here today. The report came from consul general Hanna at Monterrey, who said he heard that Torreon had been relieved. From southern Mexico, official advice told of revolutionary activities in Jalisco. Two small bands of rebels or bandits are said to be roving about the state. In Guadalupe, the capital, 1000 rebels are reported to be holding

AUBERT REPORTS DEFEATING REBELS

Sends Wire to Gen. Trevino That He Whipped Them on March 8.

Monterrey, Mex., March 12.—Dated March 8 and delayed in transit, the following telegram has been received by Gen. Gerónimo Trevino, chief of the third military zone, with headquarters in this city:

"Mi General. Camp March 8.—Gen. Jefe de la Tercera zona militar, Monterrey, N. L.: While marching overland to Torreon I saw the hills near San Juanito crowned by 2000 men under command of Argumedo and Murrillo. I fought them and dispersed them, notwithstanding the large quantity of dynamite used by them to defend their position. Five bridges had been mined with eight boxes of dynamite. Eleven men were taken prisoners and many horses were captured from the rebels. Five dead were brought in from the field before dark and more will be found tomorrow. We were forced to return to camp on account of the fatigued condition of the men. Our losses insignificant. Signed: Grig. Gen. Tracy Aubert."
